Rodger and Joann Johnson inquired on the status of the C-1 Zoning change request for their property. Their property is now residential and they wish it to be changed to commercial so they can sell the property, stating that they cannot sell it as residential.

Ms. Silvernail told them that they need to have the prospective buyer come to a Board of Supervisors Meeting with a plan of what they propose to do on the property. She stated that the Board needs a direction of what will happen to the property before zoning can be changed.

Public Comment

Allen Eagles – a separate report will be prepared for the Board of Supervisors regarding parking in Quarry Ridge. Mr. Hensel stated he should talk to the homeowners to see if they want the diagram Earl Taylor has made. Bring all the information back to the Board with their recommendations.

Susan Franco- asked if no parking signs could be modified. Mr. Hensel stated that all new signs would have to be purchased and it would also take an ordinance change.

Chief Groce- asked if the study done by Mr. Taylor took into consideration mail boxes – yes.

Joseph Demarest – addressed the Board about concerns he has about his property on 60 Old Mill Road regarding grading work that needs to be completed. Mr. Doratt made a suggestion that a target date be set to get things done on this property and instructed Mr. Lowry to meet with Herb MacCombie.

Earl Taylor - During a snowstorm can the township declare a state of emergency even if the state does not? Can Mr. Taylor, in the capacity of Emergency Coordinator declare a state of emergency? Mr. Pompo stated that he will get an answer for him.

Tony Prychodien – When will the roads be dedicated in Sadsbury Village? Mr. Hensel said no decision has been made. Mr. Pompo stated that once the roads are ordained, there will be a no parking ordinance.

Chief Groce – Pertaining to Ordinance 2006-03, he asked who will receive the trash billing? Mr. Hensel stated that the owner of the property will+ receive the bill.

With there being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted,

Linda Shank
Assistant Secretary
